Seelenbräutigam 5.5.8.8.5.5

William Romanis, 1878

Adam Drese, 1698

1. Round me falls the night; Sav-iour, be my Light: Through the hours in dark-ness shroud-ed
 2. Earth-ly work is done, Earth-ly sounds are none; Rest in sleep and si-lence seek-ing,
 3. Dark-ened now each ray o'er the trav-eller's way; Let me know that Thou hast found me,
 4. Bless-ed, heaven-ly Light Shi-ning through earth's night; Voice, that oft of love has told me;

7
 Let me see Thy face un-cloud-ed; Let Thy glo-ry shine In this heart of mine.
 Let my hear Thee soft-ly speak-ing; In my spir-it's ear Whis-per I am near.
 Let me feel Thine arms a-round me, Sure from ev-ery ill Thou wilt guard me still.
 Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me; Thou Thy watch wilt keep, Sav-iour, o'er my sleep.
